How We Protect Your Privacy

Notice To our Consumers and Guardians Effective July 1, 2019

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW YOUR PRIVATE HEALTH INFORMATION
MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

HOW CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY may use and disclose your health information for the following purposes without your express consent or authorization. We will obtain your express written authorization before using or disclosing your information for any other purpose. You may revoke such authorization, in writing, at any time to the extent the CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY has not relied on it.

Treatment. We may use your health information to determine your eligibility to receive home and community-based services and supports for individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities. We may use and disclose health information to discuss with you options for services and supports to meet your needs, and to place your name on the statewide waiting list for the services and supports you want to receive. We may disclose your eligibility for services to the affiliated community service providers you have chosen to provide your services and supports. We may use and disclose your health information to remind you of upcoming meetings or the need for your annual BASIS/Functional assessment. Unless you direct us otherwise, we may leave messages on your telephone answering machine identifying the CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY and asking for you to return our call. We will not disclose any health information to any person other than you, except to leave a message for you to return the call.

Payment. We may use and disclose your health information as necessary for reimbursement for the home and community-based services and supports for individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities that you receive through CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY and/or its affiliated providers. We also may provide information to affiliated providers to assist them in obtaining reimbursement for the services and supports which they provide to you.

Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose your health information for our internal CDDO operations as well as Quality Assurance/Quality Enhancement oversight of the services and supports that you receive. These uses, and disclosures are necessary for our day-to-day operations and to make sure that you receive quality, responsive services and supports that respect your rights and offer you choices.

Business Associates. The CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY may provide some services through contracts or arrangements with business associates. Before doing so, CDDO OF BUTLER COUNTY will require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your health information.

Creation of de-identified health information. We may use your health information to create de-identified health information. This means that all data items that would help identify you are removed or modified.

Uses and disclosures required by law. We will use and/or disclose your health information when required by law to do so.

Disclosures for public health activities. We may disclose your health information to a government agency authorized (a) to collect data for the purpose of preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability; or (b) to receive reports of child abuse or neglect. We also may disclose such information to a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease if permitted by law.

Disclosures about victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. We may disclose your health information to a government authority, including protective services, if we reasonably believe you are a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your health information during the course of audits, compliance reviews, investigations, inspections, and other proceedings related to CDDO oversight.

Disclosures for judicial and administrative proceedings. Your protected health information may be disclosed in response to a court order or in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process if certain legal requirements are satisfied.

Disclosures for law enforcement purposes. We may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official as required by law or in compliance with a court order, court-ordered warrant, a subpoena, or summons issued by a judicial officer; a grand jury subpoena; or an administrative request related to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry.

Disclosures regarding victims of a crime. In response to a law enforcement official's request, we may disclose information about you with your approval. We may also disclose information in an emergency situation or if you are incapacitated if it appears you were the victim of a crime.

Disclosures to avert a serious threat to health or safety. We may disclose information to prevent or lessen a serious threat to the health and safety of a person or the public or as necessary for law enforcement authorities to identify or apprehend an individual.

Disclosures for specialized government functions. We may disclose your protected health information as required to comply with governmental requirements for national security reasons or for protection of certain government personnel or foreign dignitaries.
